Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

On that day, as evening drew on, Jesus said to his disciples: "Let us cross to the other side." Leaving the crowd, they took Jesus with them in the boat just as he was.

And other boats were with him.

A violent squall came up and waves were breaking over the boat, so that it was already filling up.

Jesus was in the stern, asleep on a cushion.

They woke him and said to him, "Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?"

He woke up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea,

"Quiet! Be still!"

The wind ceased and there was great calm.

Then he asked them, "Why are you terrified?"

Do you not yet have faith?"

They were filled with great awe and said to one another,

"Who then is this whom even wind and sea obey?"

Mk 4:35-41

Question of the Week

Theme: Awe

Step One: Listen to the Word

Listening today to this familiar story of Jesus calming the storm, what strikes you about it? What word or phrase caught your ear today?

Step Two: Look into Your Life

- Question for Children: Jesus makes the wind and the sea peaceful. How would you have felt if you were with Jesus and the disciples during the storm?
- Question for Youth: Jesus is capable of great things, even calming storms. What is one thing that you wish he would calm in your own life?
- Question for Adults: When and where have you been awed by God's action?
